RELEASE OF INFORMATION

The Restoring Family Links Program of The Canadian Red Cross Society relies on its network across Canada, and its international partners, the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) and Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies throughout the world to assist in its efforts to restore contact between loved ones separated by conflict or humanitarian crisis.

By making a tracing request, the person initiating the request authorizes The Canadian Red Cross Society to release his/her contact information to our international partners in order to facilitate the search.

The person initiating the tracing request also authorizes The Canadian Red Cross Society, through its partners, to release his/her name and contact details to the sought person designated in the request or to the sought person's heirs or legal guardians.

In the course of carrying out a tracing request, national or regional databases may be consulted, and in some cases advertisements in local media may be used.

A sought person always has the right to refuse to have any contact with the inquirer, or to have the inquirer's contact details released to him/her without providing his/her own contact information to the inquirer.

I, the undersigned, have read and understand all the information in this document and I agree with its contents.
