

Prevention in Motion: Preventing Abuse, Bullying and Harassment of Children and Youth

Length

2-8 hours

Target Audience

Adults who work with children and youth

Objectives

Participants will learn:

- violence is a multi-faceted, world wide problem
- definitions of emotional, physical, neglect, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, bullying and harassment
- the consequences of violence against children and youth
- frameworks to protect children and youth
- how to handle disclosures
- there are Ten Steps to creating safe environments for children and youth

Content

UN Convention on the Rights of the Child

Violence Against Children and Youth

Power

Vulnerable Children and Youth

Definitions of Emotional, Physical and Sexual Abuse, Neglect, Sexual Exploitation, Bullying and Harassment

Impact of violence

Why violence happens

Legal frameworks to protect children and youth

Intervention: Handling Disclosures, Reporting and the Law

Ten Steps to Creating Safe Environments

Risk Management

Closure

Resources: Prevention in Motion workbook

For more information on It's Not Your Fault, visit www.redcross.ca or call your local Canadian Red Cross