

Samit D'Cunha, IHL Regional Coordinator, Canadian Red Cross

Samit D'Cunha is an IHL Regional Coordinator with the Canadian Red Cross based in Halifax. In his role he organizes IHL educational activities for Atlantic Canada as well as delivering presentations focussing on IHL. Prior to joining the Canadian Red Cross, he was an Officer at the Geneva International Centre for Humanitarian Demining, where he advised and contributed to projects related to international compliance, legal efficiency, and the development of various international disarmament standards. Other experiences include working for Human Rights Watch and the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Political Science from McGill University, a Master's and Juris Doctorate degree from American University, and an LL.M. from the Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights