

“You see your house burning, and you think it’s just a small fire... but afterward, you realize that you have lost everything. I think it shows deep and genuine concern to come out here in person. It made us realize we weren’t alone and could count on invaluable assistance.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for your generosity.”

– Rose-Alice, her husband and her two children received Red Cross support following a house fire.

YOUR GENEROSITY AT WORK

- › Every three hours, our volunteers provide emergency assistance to people who have been evacuated or affected by a disaster in communities across Canada.
- › Your donation of $2.50, $4 or $5 per week provides direct assistance: those in need are housed, fed and clothed.
- › Listen to stories from the people your gift made it possible for us to help at redcross.ca/stories.
- › This assistance is not only material, but also profoundly human and a fundamental source of comfort.
