From Maple Creek to Yorkton, La Ronge to Estevan and everywhere in between, the Canadian Red Cross is here, ready to help those who need it most.

The Canadian Red Cross is a non-profit humanitarian organization dedicated to improving the situation of vulnerable people at home and around the world.

In Saskatchewan, the Canadian Red Cross reaches out to people in need through a network of trained volunteers, providing training, support and information across several areas including:

- Disaster Preparation
- Disaster Response
- Bullying Prevention
- Healthy Youth Dating Relationships
- Child and Youth Abuse
- First Aid and CPR
- Swimming and Water Safety

Disaster Management

What may be exceptional for most is typical for us. When disaster strikes, public safety comes first. Responding to a disaster can quickly deplete a community's resources. The Canadian Red Cross works with local authorities and other agencies to address the immediate needs of those affected. Help may include shelter, information, food, clothing and family reunification.

Violence and Abuse Prevention

Education is the key to the prevention of abuse, bullying, violence and sexual exploitation. RespectED: Violence and Abuse Prevention aims to stop the hurt before it starts. Our nationally recognized, evidence-based programs teach children, youth and adults how healthy relationships look and feel, how to recognize the signs of bullying, abuse, dating violence and harassment, and how to get help.

Swimming and Water Safety

For more than 65 years, our Swimming and Water Safety programming has maintained a tradition of excellence. Through an innovative learn-to-swim continuum as well as public education, the Canadian Red Cross helps Canadians develop healthy, positive attitudes and stay safe in, on and around water.

First Aid and CPR

Prepare for Life®. Red Cross teaches First Aid and CPR lessons in easy-to-follow steps, empowering individuals at home, at work or anywhere in between to act on, prevent, and manage life's emergencies.

In Canada, we provide assistance to millions through our disaster relief, injury prevention and humanitarian programming.
