

CANADA AND THE CANADIAN RED CROSS ADDRESS DISASTER RISK IN THE CARIBBEAN

The Caribbean Region is highly vulnerable to disasters.

Events
71

Affected
1,103,951

Total Damages
(in billion $)
1,073,744

*Source: The International Disaster Database www.emdat.be/2010

* Figures do not include data from the 2010 Haiti Earthquake

2013

The Government of Canada has committed to contribute $65 million to the Region to reduce these risks.

PREPARED COMMUNITIES THROUGH THE CARIBBEAN COMMUNITY RESILIENCE TO DISASTER RISK (CCRDR) PROJECT

CCRDR Project: $3.7 million

from the Government of Canada and Public Donations

Communities:

	Jamaica	20
	Guyana	20
	Dominica	5

Participants:

Community Disaster Responder Teams (CDRTs):

14,370
Community Members

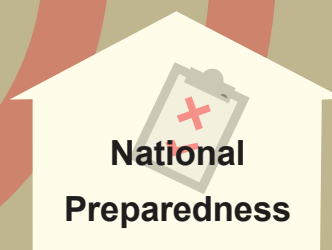

830
CDRTs Members

CCRDR ACHIEVEMENTS

Goal:

Enhanced Community Resilience to Disaster Risk in the Caribbean

For more information, please visit Canadian Red Cross

www.redcross.ca

and the Department of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development Canada

www.international.gc.ca